By virtue of the authority vested in me as Director of Central Intelligence, it is directed that the power and authority to take the following actions are hereby delegated to the Assistant Director for Special Operations or the Executive Officer for Special Operations, within the limits of unvouchered funds allotted to the Office of Special Operations by the Projects Review Committee, and in accordance with existing laws and regulations. Either specified officer shall review and authorize, or approve in his discretion:

1. The transfer of civilian employees from one official station to another, and the payment or reimbursement of all expenses incident thereto, including travel and the transportation of household goods, personal effects, and dependents of such employees.
2. The payment of quarters and cost of living allowances to civilian employees stationed abroad in accordance with the provisions of CIG Administrative Order No. 31, dated 31 October 1946, "Quarters, Cost of Living, Special Foreign Living Allowances."
3. Temporary duty travel, including travel from and to overseas ports, by civilian employees and consultants, and the payment or reimbursement of expenses thereto.
4. Travel performed by civilian employees on account of an emergency or without prior authority, and the payment or reimbursement of expenses incurred incident to such travel.
5. Travel by civilian employees incident to change of their official station.
